Preliminary Survey from Lund to St. George is Approved.

WILL EXTEND TO MOAPA.

Has No Connection With Clark Road, But Will Have Junction to Faclittate Shipping.

It is announced that the two pre liminary surveys for the Utah Southern extension from the Salt Lake Route to St. George as printed in these columns some weeks ago, the one extending from Lund southward has been approved by the officials promoting the building of the branch line. The oth-er preliminary survey was from Mod-ena to St. George, but the line from Lund was considered more practicable, Lund was considered more practicable, hence that route was decided upon. The road as projected will pass through Cedar City, Iron county, which town has granted n franchise through its streets to the Coal Creek mines for a period of 100 years. The officials of the proposed line are Los Angeles men, as follows: Charles Inman, oresident, George Foreman, vice president, and C. L. Reed secretary and treasure. and C. L. Reed, secretary and treasurand C. L. Reed, secretary and treasurer.

The distance from Lund to St. George is about 68 miles, and it is said that instead of stopping at St. George, the line will be continued on to a connection with the Sait Lake Route at Moapa, Nevada, a total distance from Sait Lake of 157 miles, but it is said that the road can cut this down to 140 miles of actual construction. The line is said to have no connection with the Sait Lake Route, but would not interfere in any way with the main line of the latter road to Moapa.

The country to be tapped by the line known as "Dixie" is a fine section with long summers and short winters, with rich soil and fine climate, producing all vegetables of the temperate and many sub-tropical fruits. Dry land farming, fruit growing, livestock, mining and other interests have been features of the country for years, although held back by leak of transnortures of the country for years, al-though held back by lack of transpor-tation facilities. Oil has been found in that locality, and new prospects have been made which indicate that that been made which indicate that that section will contribute its share of the big mines of Utah.

In this connection there is a new irrigation enterprise at the town of Enterprise, and a branch will be built to this place as soon as conditions warrant. Enterprise is located about 20 miles from Lund.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The meeting of the Authors' club on Thursday, when the Federation and club officers of Utah were guests of honor, was a most successful affair. It was held at the home of Mrs. W. W. Riter, and present beside the club mem-bers were federation officers and bers were federation officers and presidents of local clubs, where the representatives from a half dozen towns, including Mrs. Wester of Park City, Mrs. Crawford of Manti, Mrs. Sarah W. Telmage of Provo and Mrs. Lucy A. Clark, Mrs. Scowcroft, Mrs. Burrows, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Hilliard of Ogden. A social hour followed the program, which included a talk by Mrs. Byron W. Cummings, president of the Byron W. Cummings, president of the Federation, and vocal solos by Misses Edna Evans and Elma Young, with Edna Evans and Elma Young, with Miss Bernice Young accompanying. Mrs. Cumming's talk and the discussion which followed brought out the practical work done by women's clubs, showing that they are not devoted solely to selfish ends. Mrs. Cummings dweit on the good work done by the traveling libraries, the importance of aiding in civile improvement, especially in regard to health conditions and many other. to health conditions, and many other interesting points and afterward the subjects were discussed by the mem-

Next Tuesday evening the Author's club will hold its annual social reunion at the home of Mrs. W. W. Riter, and a feature of the evening will be a lecture by Mr. M. J. Brines on "Folk-Songs," accompanied by Mrs. M. J. Brines, and assisted in vocal interpretations by four young ladies, daughters of members of the club.

Dr. Charles E. Carter entertained at an elaborate banquet last night at the Alta club, the table being laid in the gold room and having for a centerpiece

His pre-liminary hearing was set for May 10, and in default of $500 bonds he was remanded to the custody of the remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

The Saturday morning docket in Judge Bowman's court was uncommonly "slender." A couple of drunks talked themselves out of further trouble, and A. Halfred and his son-in-law, C. H. Yates, of Lehi, convinced the court that their misdeameanor of peddling fish in Salt Lake without the proper license had been committed in ignorance of the law and were discharged. The case of B. C. Merrill, charged with the violation of the city ordinance which requires that a permit must be obtained from the city food inspector before milk can be sold in the city, occupied a considerable portion of the court's time in the hearing of arguments on a demurrer to the complaint. Attorney Soren X. Christensen, for the defense, brought out the novel point that it is the duty of the food inspector to locate the dairy
